LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT and EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Friends,

We saw another outstanding year of saving and enhancing the lives of at-risk youth here at Madison Square Boys & Girls Club. Thanks in large part to the tremendous support of friends like you, in 2011 more than 5,000 youth came to our Clubs. While there, they found strong relationships and the necessary resources to help shape them into young men and women of outstanding character who are empowered to take on life's many challenges.

Madison's complete roster of youth-focused programming in five core areas has become an integral part of the academic, social, and emotional development of thousands of at-risk youth living in some of the most disadvantaged communities in New York City. As you know, a child growing up in poverty encounters individual, family, and environmental risks that can undermine not only the ability to learn, but also the healthy development of character, motivation, and persistence.

The dropout rate of students living in low-income families is more than four times the rate of students from high-income families; thus, Madison places a strong emphasis on helping to ensure that our members stay on track to graduate. We are proud to report that members who are part of our Project Graduate Program graduate from high school at a rate that is 38% higher than their peers - 82% as opposed to 44%.

You will read many exciting and inspiring stories from the thousands of at-risk youth who are finding that their Great Futures Start Here at Madison. We thank you for your ongoing support in helping to make 2011 one of the best years yet. Madison's impact gives children hope, and hope stops children from giving up.

Sincerely,

Michael S. Geltzeiler
President, Board of Trustees

YOUTH OF THE YEAR

MADISON RECOGNIZES INDIVIDUAL ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE, strength of character, community involvement, and personal contribution to the Clubhouse through our Youth of the Year program. Twelve Madison youth went through the rigorous application and interview process in all four of our Clubhouses. One representative was selected from each and they went before a panel of judges to compete for the overall Madison Youth of the Year.

In February, we proudly named Natavia Louis from the Navy Yard Clubhouse as Madison Square Boys & Girls Club 2011 Youth of the Year. Natavia went on to represent us at the New York State Youth of the Year contest and impressed the judges so much that she was selected as one of four finalists, winning a college scholarship in the process.

Through a partnership with College Outreach USA, more than 80 Madison teens took part in a college fair at the Thomas S. Murphy Clubhouse. More than 15 well known colleges and universities such as Harvard, Fordham, and West Point presented topics including “The Admissions Game,” “Write the Best Essay,” and “Interviewing 101.”

Members of the Keystone Club at Columbus Clubhouse participated in the annual AIDS Walk New York in Central Park in May. Not only did they raise over $350 for the event, they also walked more than six miles in support of HIV/AIDS awareness and research.

and committed themselves to making positive choices for their futures.

SMART GIRLS partnered with Sustainable Flatbush Garden, making weekly visits and helping out with composting and gardening activities. The members learned how to grow their own vegetables and fruits while gaining a sense of responsibility for their communities and their health.

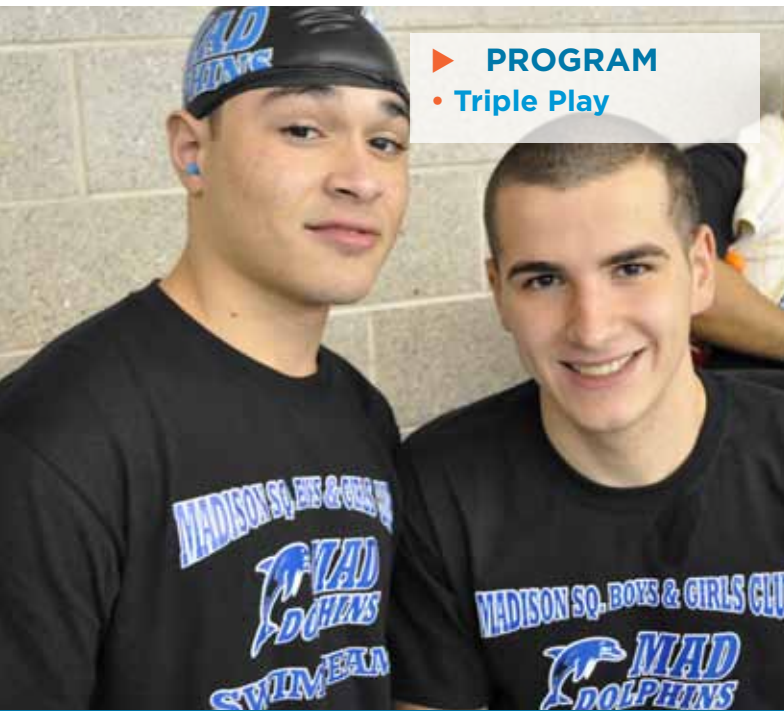

In an effort to encourage positive decision making and the importance of a drug-free life, Youth Empowerment Program participants at the Navy Yard Clubhouse organized activities for younger Club members. They conducted live public service announcements (PSA) around the building and created a brochure that outlined the myths about drug use. The PSA was played for children throughout the community and at local school P.S. 287.

Working with acclaimed photographer Rob Northway, the Youth Empowerment Program at Thomas S. Murphy Clubhouse debuted Truth About Drugs, an advertising campaign to encourage teens to make positive life choices. The result was a visually stunning series of photos that were on public display in June in celebration of the United Nations International Day Against Drug Abuse.

THE ARTS

▶ PROGRAMS

- Visual Arts
- Performing Arts

- ▶ Provide exposure to new cultural experiences
- ▶ Develop creativity and alternative problem-solving skills
- ▶ Teach social and interpersonal skills through arts appreciation

Thomas S. Murphy Clubhouse member DOMINIC C. WON FIRST PLACE FOR THE NORTHEAST REGION in the BGCA Digital Arts Festival through the PhotoTech program.

In partnership with Yahoo!, Madison brought the Reel Skills filmmaking program to the Thomas S. Murphy Clubhouse where 13 budding directors, producers, and cinematographers worked with a local documentary filmmaker to create four short films. Members tapped into their creativity and were encouraged to think outside the box and productively problem-solve while developing their films.

▲ Thanks to the Heisman Trophy Trust, Madison fulfilled a dream and built a new state-of-the-art athletic field in the vacant space behind our Thomas S. Murphy Clubhouse. This allowed us to launch our first-ever outdoor Flag Football League which engaged more than 60 members and culminated with a championship game. The new field greatly aids our efforts to promote daily physical activity and combat growing epidemics – including obesity and diabetes. Our members are thrilled to be able to partake in an expanded sports program that teaches them important life lessons such as communication, goal setting, and acceptance of successes as well as failures.

▼ Hundreds of Be Great: Graduate participants took part in Wake-Up Call, a back-to-school rally in Union Square. Hosted by AT&T and Boys & Girls Clubs of America, and part of the BE READY summer initiative, Club members were led by Celebrity Ambassador Kelly Rowland in a pledge to be on time for class, do their best every day, and graduate from high school.

In January, the PBS television show Design Squad Nation paid a visit to the Joel E. Smilow Clubhouse. Co-hosts Adam Vollmer and Judy Lee helped more than 100 Madison youth test their knowledge of Science and Engineering by crafting their own miniature catapults. The kids then watched in amazement as the giant “Pop Fly” hurled basketballs across the gymnasium.

Thomas S. Murphy Clubhouse’s Annual Fashion Show at the Kings Plaza Mall gave youth an opportunity to show off their original creations in front of hundreds of friends, parents, and shoppers. This year’s theme was “Re-Design,” and Madison fashion designers transformed old donated clothes into dozens of updated, hip looks.

Gelb* for his 44 extraordinary years of service on Madison's Board, and Alumnus of Distinction, William "Chip" Simms. The evening also celebrated the legacy of long-time Trustee, Edmund J. Blake, whose generous spirit will be remembered through the Edmund J. Blake Financial Literacy Program.

▲ In May, over 300 of New York's most fashionable women gathered at Cipriani 42nd Street for PURSES & PURSENALITIES, which honored Julie Dannenberg of Avenue Magazine, fashion designer Eric Javits, and famed jewelry house Asprey. Jane Hanson of LX New York/WNBC 4 served as master of ceremonies for the luncheon.

CORPORATE SUPPORT

Special thanks to the corporate supporters whose financial commitment to Madison Square Boys & Girls Club helps make our work possible.

The Warnaco Foundation has demonstrated an inspired commitment to Madison Square Boys & Girls Club with ongoing support of our academic enhancement initiatives and focus on excellence in education. In 2011, the Warnaco Foundation went above and beyond, providing funding that allowed all our Clubhouses to operate Summer Teen Nights and thus create a positive and safe environment for our teens. Additionally, the Warnaco Foundation generously selected us as their charity of choice for their summer golf tournament.

The Heisman Trophy Trust's goal is to contribute to the well-being and fitness of underserved populations in the United States. The hope, through the Trust's charitable endeavors, is for The Heisman Trophy to symbolize the fostering of a sense of community responsibility and service to youth, especially those living in disadvantaged communities. The Trust's support of Madison Square Boys & Girls Club, which included a state-of-the-art athletic field in 2011, helps our young people lead happy, healthy, and productive lives.

The New York Yankees have been outstanding supporters of Madison Square Boys & Girls Club. The team's momentous hospitality and ticket donations have not only allowed us to host fundraising events at the Stadium, but have also given hundreds of young men and women from our Clubhouses the opportunity to experience the joy and excitement of live sporting events.

Madison Square Boys & Girls Club is proud to count G. H. Bass & Company among our strongest supporters. Through robust support of our special events and a demonstrated dedication to providing our Clubhouses with necessary program funding, G.H. Bass & Company has shown an unflinching allegiance to Madison's mission and a deep commitment to our next generation.

Vivendi's corporate social responsibility program, the Create Joy Fund, helps disadvantaged youth achieve their full potential through opportunities in entertainment and communications. Create Joy supports Madison Square Boys & Girls Club's Computer Literacy Program, which focuses on bridging the digital divide by teaching youth critical software and hardware skills through age-appropriate online lessons, creative projects, gaming tournaments, and other technology-related exercises.
